A MESSAGE FROM OUR PRESIDENT KRISTIN J. EISENHARDT, ESQUIRE

I have officially been President of our bar association since July 1st and we have already made progress in several areas that I have made a priority. As my first official act, I happily participated in the annual Opening of the Courts program on September 5, 2017. During this time, we annually acknowledge those attorneys who have practiced in our community but have since passed away.

On a more joyful note, we were also able to award the Stanley S. Brotman Scholarship to Ms. Brooke Deckert Mills during the Opening of the Courts. Ms. Deckert Mills grew up in Millville, New Jersey and has always wanted to be an attorney. She attended the East Stroudsburg University, graduating with a Bachelor of Arts in Political Science. Ms. Deckert Mills continues to volunteer for Millville's Police Youth Week and is a member of the Delaware Law School Student Ambassadors Program. I, again, congratulate Ms. Brooke Deckert Mills on her award and look forward to her returning to our community as a practicing attorney in the near future.

Following the Opening of the Courts, members of our bar association attended the "meet and greet" with the new law clerks who recently began their clerkships in our county. It was a very nice evening had by all. To the new law clerks, I hope you felt welcome and know that we as an association are here to help you acclimate to your new roles. My best advice to you would be to befriend and emulate the attorneys that appear before the Judges in our county. My year as a law clerk was an amazing experience, a year filled with not only an immense amount of knowledge bestowed upon me through the clerkship but also by the attorneys in this community. Please continue to attend our bar association events and participate as much as you are able!

Cumberland County and Vicinage 15 also recently welcomed the appointment of the Honorable Michael R. Ostrowski, Jr., J.S.C. The Swearing-In Ceremony for Judge Ostrowski is scheduled for September 14, 2017. Please join me in attending this event and formally welcoming Judge Ostrowski to our County. With Judge Ostrowski assigned to the Family Division, I have had the privilege of appearing before him and can attest to the fact that he has taken well to the bench and takes the responsibility of deciding matters seriously.

I plan on continuing the tradition to acknowledge one of our colleagues monthly for his or her efforts at promoting the law, helping with functions or just because. The acknowledgement is admittedly completely at the mercy of the President. In recognition of the hard work that this month's Lawyer of the Month performs, I want to acknowledge Bonnie Laube, Esquire. Bonnie has been an "unsung hero" in many events, including assisting other attorneys when necessary. She often does this without expecting any appreciation despite deserving the same. Bonnie also volunteers with several organizations (including our own). I must say that Bonnie is the epitome of what I would hope each of us portrays to our community. So I would like to personally thank her and acknowledge her as September's Lawyer of the Month.

MOMMA BEARISTER

Looking for fun activities to do with your kids and/or grandkids in and around Cumberland County? Looking for a place to commiserate with other attorney moms and dads? Then check out Momma Bearister on Facebook.

Hoping to build a community of Mommas, Papas and Cubs! MB is based in Cumberland County, NJ so most of the activities posted and set up by MB will be in that area. Please feel free to share with friends - the more the merrier! You are welcome to post your events and activities to the page as well! Thanks again!

BAR SNIPPETS— FROM TED RITTER, C.C.B.A. HISTORIAN

---

Remembering William P. Doherty, Jr.

By Theodore H. Ritter,
Cumberland County Bar Historian

Blessed with a terrific sense of humor, William P. Doherty, Jr., was an irreplaceable personality at the Cumberland County Bar. Bill died unexpectedly, of a heart ailment, on September 28, 2012.

Bill served for more than seven years as our County Prosecutor and in each one of those years, Bill returned, to the County Freeholders, unspent monies from the prosecutor's budget allotment.

Bill was raised in Bridgeton, attended local schools, then LaSalle Military Academy, next Haverford College, from which he received a Bachelor's degree in Chemistry, and finally the University of Chicago School of Law.

Bill began practicing law in 1962 as an associate in the office of David L. Horuvitz. In 1968, Bill left Dave to start his own practice.

At 38 years of age, Bill was appointed, by Governor William T. Cahill, to serve as Cumberland County Prosecutor. Even though Bill was a Republican, he named a Democrat, N. Douglas Russell of Millville, to serve as his First Assistant.

Bill successfully faced many challenges during his service as the County Prosecutor.

Armed with a search warrant, he ended a highly publicized Ku Klux Klan rally, scheduled to occur in Millville, before it ever took place.

Bill was confronted with the illegal police eavesdropping of an attorney client conference which enormously complicated the prosecution of Dr. Harry Sugar, whose wife's body was discovered buried under the Sugar's backyard picnic table.

---

Also, while Bill was Prosecutor, a large chunk of his staff's time was consumed by the investigation and prosecution of a seaborne marijuana smuggling case, involving 16 defendants, the fishing trawler Maverick and a sailing sloop, "the Wind in the Willows".

Another provocative event that Bill had to address, while County Prosecutor, involved the fatal shooting of a speeding, teenage, Vietnamese immigrant motorist, in Upper Deerfield Township, by an on duty New Jersey State Trooper.

Bill was the last part time Cumberland County Prosecutor. This status allowed him to simultaneously maintain a successful private law practice, which largely focused on his role as local defense counsel for Allstate Insurance Company. Bill's busy private practice law office had files stacked on his desk, on chairs and on the floor lining the walls.

Bill was a Fellow of the American College of Trial Attorneys. He was also a Bridgeton Hospital and Glassboro State College Trustee and he served a term as a Commissioner of the Delaware River and Bay Authority.

Bill was a past president of our County Bar Association. A regular attendee at our Bar meetings, his dry, comical observations often caused eruptions of laughter from his tablemates.

In his last years, as Bill was winding down his law practice, due to health issues, he would stop in at various Court House and law offices for conversation and coffee. He always had an insightful comment or quip about the day's events.

Bill was survived by son Adam, daughters Megan and Deirdre and Bill's two brothers, Doug and Don.

OPENING OF THE COURTS & MEMORIAL SERVICE

BRIDGETON—Vicinage XV, in conjunction with the Cumberland County Bar Association, celebrated its annual Opening of the Courts ceremony and Memorial Service on September 5, 2017.

The ceremony, which took place at the Cumberland County Courthouse, marked the traditional start of the court year and recognized the recently deceased members of the CCBA.

The tradition began when the courts would recess for the summer and reopen in September. While there is no longer a summer recess, the CCBA renewed the tradition in 2006. It is a wonderful way to acknowledge our rich history while celebrating the dedication of our judges, staff and members of our legal community.

CCBA Historian, Theodore Ritter, delivered remarks respecting Joann C. D'Arrigo, Daniel C. Hoffman, Ned P. Rogovoy and Samuel J. Serata, each of whom passed away within the last court year. Members of their families joined the CCBA in recognizing them and their contributions.

Following the ceremony, a cocktail reception was held at Terrigno's Fairfield Inn where the vicinage judges introduced their new law clerks.

CIVIL BENCH BAR CONFERENCE

On Wednesday, September 27, 2017 at 3:30 p.m., Vicinage 15 Assignment Judge, the Honorable Benjamin Telsey, and the Honorable David Morgan, Presiding Judge of the Law Division, Civil Part, are hosting a Bench Bar Conference for those practicing in the civil arena. The conference will be held in the Cumberland County Courthouse in a courtroom to be announced at a later date. Likewise, a full agenda will be made available at a later date. A wide range of topics will be open for discussion including, but not limited to: judge assignments; DED extension motions; vacation postponements; e-filing; arbitration and a host of other topics.

For many years now, the judiciary in Vicinage 15 has been making itself available to meet with the civil practitioners and discuss ways in which the practice of law can be improved upon for all involved. If you're practicing a little or a lot in the civil arena, take advantage of the ability to ask questions of the court, voice concerns, suggest better ways to do things, etc.

You don't want to miss this very informative meeting. Put it in your calendar and plan on attending!!

In the past decade, the Internal Revenue Service has placed an increased emphasis on international compliance, both in added enforcement of existing forms and promulgation of new requirements. The Service has offered what has been tantamount to a "grace period" for compliance, offering voluntary disclosure programs for retroactive failures. Increased indicia exist showing that this "grace period" may be expiring, with assessments for failures more common prospectively.

This seminar will address penalty risks and assessment mechanisms for failures to meet international reporting requirements, including FinCEN Report 114 (commonly referenced as the FBAR).
